WHY IS IT CALLED THE WONDERER?

A Wonderer (Wun-der-er) is an independent thinker; one who aspires to have the highest quality of life by seeking out new people, places, and experiences.

This experience became a passion project for our founder after quitting his corporate finance career and taking a year off to circumvent the globe. While traveling he realized how out of balance he'd become and started to envision a space that would allow working professionals to reclaim balance in their lives, while providing an escape from the responsibilities of daily life.
